

Fall means family time at the Sand Springs Pumpkin Patch. Brandy Bennett brought her children to the pumpkin patch Thursday and held her youngest son, Logan, while her three other boys played a football game. "We come every year," Bennett said. "We're from Keystone." Ron and Helen brought their grandchildren to the pumpkin patch for the first time this year. Helen said her granddaughter, Brooklyn, 7, likely enjoyed riding a horse most while her two grandsons enjoyed the bounce houses. "She loves animals," Helen said. "The boys are in favor of the jumping things." HillSpring Church Associate Pastor Matt Barnett said his church was at the pumpkin patch during fall break to raise money for their student ministry program, including mission trips and upcoming events. "About 10 to 15 kids are going to Guatemala's probably going to be their first international mission trip," Barnett said. The Sand Springs Pumpkin Patch is open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday-Saturday and from noon to 7 p.m. Sunday during the month of October at 17516 W. 8th Street. It features plenty of seasonal photo opportunities, pony rides, farm animals, games, bounce houses and more. Entry to the pumpkin patch is free, but an activity pass for unlimited daily activities is $8 and pony rides are a separate charge. For more information, visit www.sandspringspumpkinpatch.com. But the Sand Springs Pumpkin Patch isn't the only event going on in late October for those looking for some Halloween-themed fun. Other fall events in Sand Springs include: Tulsa Community College's West Campus will host their annual West Fest event from 6 to 8 p.m. October 26 at the campus at 7505 West 41st Street South. The annual event will feature games, candy, food, a spook trail and more. This year, the event will also feature a showing of the Halloween classic "The Nightmare Before Christmas" from 8:15 to 9:30 p.m. Garden Heights Freewill Baptist Church will have a Trunk or Treat from 6:30 to 8 p.m. October 28 at 3415 S. Summit Boulevard. The event will feature hot dogs, popcorn, candy, inflatables and train rides. The annual Boo on Broadway event (hosted by the Ministerial Alliance this year) will be from 2 to 5 p.m. October 29 in the downtown Triangle. The event will feature plenty of candy, costume contests for people and pets and free food. â€¢ Fisher Baptist Church will have a Fall Festival from 6 to 8:30 p.m. October 31 at 4008 S. 137th W. Avenue. The event will feature popcorn, candy, hot dogs, games and inflatables. â€¢ CrossPoint Church will have a Family Fun Night from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. October 31 at 4600 S. 129th W. Avenue.

The event will feature food, candy, games and prizes. For more information, visit www.crosspoint.me.