

What better way to celebrate Saturday's bedlam football game between the Oklahoma Sooners and Oklahoma State University Cowboys than to attend a birthday celebration honoring two of the game's biggest fans. Friends of Kolby Cardwell and Joshua Darst will gather Saturday, Dec. 6 to attend the boys' 5th Annual Bedlam Birthday Bash and Dance Party event.

The party will be held from 6-9 p.m. at the Wagoner County Fair Barn, 30058 E. 147th St. In lieu of individual gifts, Cardwell and Darst respectfully request that guests bring one unwrapped toy to be placed in the bedlam box of their choice, supporting either the Sooners or Cowboys. All toys will be donated to Coweta Rolling Thunder for the organization's Toys for Coweta Area Kids project. Last year when the boys celebrated their birthdays, more than four dozen toys were brought to their party for distribution to youngsters who are less fortunate. They hope to surpass that number this year. To learn more about the party, call 918-406-0955 or 918-694-4404.
