

Regent Bank is proud to announce Valarie Land has joined Regent Bank as their Tulsa Market Branch Manager. Valarie has over 30 years of banking experience in Oklahoma. Most recently, Valarie served as the Senior Vice President and Director of Operations for Citizens Security Bank. Prior to working at Citizens Security Bank, Valarie was the former Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer for ONB Bank. Regent Bank is equally proud to announce Trevor Dorsey as the Nowata Market President. Trevor has over 20 years of banking experience in Arkansas and Oklahoma with the majority of his career being in community banking with supervisory responsibilities. Trevor has a BS Degree in Business Administration & Sports Management from Southwest Baptist University and completed the Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University in 2008. In Summer 2014, Trevor along with his wife, Beth, and their three sons, Tayton, Mason, and Bryson, moved from Holdenville where Trevor was the Market Bank President for First United Bank to Bartlesville to work for Central National Bank & Trust Co. Trevor oversaw all of the CNB's lending, business development, marketing, and budget functions. Trevor's lending background has been in agriculture by way of contract poultry & swine operators, cow/calf & stock operations, as well with all areas of commercial lending which includes a healthcare portfolio of nursing and assisted living clients. Trevor is involved with the Chamber of Commerce in Bartlesville and Nowata, Boys and Girls Club in Bartlesville and Nowata, United Way/ Washington County, AG extension/Washington County, and the Bartlesville Planning Commission. Trevor and his family are also very involved in their church, First Baptist Bartlesville. Regent Bank is a community bank with 3 Oklahoma locations in Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Nowata. Regent Bank takes great pride in always seeking out the best and brightest for every new addition to their world-class team. "We know the continued growth and success of Regent Bank absolutely depends on our people. We are very pleased to have Trevor and Valarie join on our team," said Sean Kouplen, Chairman and CEO, Regent Bank.
