

9360 S. Union Ave., Jenks 918-299-1208 Meredith Dooley has wanted to be a veterinarian since she was 4 years old and met her first horses. At 7, she moved down the street from Woodland West Animal Hospital and Woodland West Pet Resort in Jenks, and she started volunteering at the resort at 14. She continued to help at the resort throughout high school and college. Dooley, who graduated from Oklahoma State University with a degree in physiology and earned her veterinary degree in 2010, spent four years working for the Animal Emergency Center. Married to a special forces sniper, she and her husband were stationed in Germany for three years and had four military deployments. They returned to Tulsa, and she joined the staff of Woodland in February 2014. Woodland West Animal Hospital is open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. seven days a week.
