

The Skiatook High School Class of 1973 held its 40-year reunion Saturday, Nov. 30, at MADâ€™s LOTAROC Ranch, south of Barnsdall. Twenty-nine classmates attended, along with their guests, and one of their former teachers, Pat Byfield Whiteman. All but nine classmates were from Skiatook. Traveling from out of state were Rosemary (Holloway) Hill from Monroe, La., Randy Riddle from Dallas, Texas, and Elaine (Harville) Procter from Fort Collins, Colorado. Those from other Oklahoma cities were Melanie (Lierly) Daniels from Barnsdall, Debbie (Short) Paslay from Inola, Mark Storey from Tulsa, Barbara (Harper) Fennel from Edmond, Joe Rozell from Vera and Dennis Elam from Ochelata. Those from Skiatook were Donna (Wadsworth) Hulsey, Judy (Berkenbile) Waken, Judy Bruton, Debbie (Basore) Miller, Rose Miller-Smith, Sheilah Hurd, Debbie (Jolley) Green, LaJuana (Loney) Worley, Doyleene (Parker) Fancher, Debbie (Downing) Trotter, Roberta (Barnes) Kehler, Teresa (Phillips) Moore, Diana (Scott) Hendryx, Roger Hendryx, Joe Eschbach, Glenn Hamil, Tim Prather, Randy McDonald, Max Thomas, and Steve Barton. After eating dinner, everyone enjoyed themselves visiting with each other and looking at the 1973 yearbook. Recognition was given to deceased classmates. Pictures were taken and stories were told. A discussion was held about future reunions.
