

Celebrate peace, love and pets at the annual Woofstock, set from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 14, at Riverwalk Crossing in Jenks, 300 Riverwalk Terrace. With adoptable pets from more than 40 animal rescue organizations and shelters, it is the perfect time to find a new furry friend. All newly adopted pets will receive a free microchip ID tag and goody bag courtesy of Oklahoma Alliance for Animals.

The event will also feature pet contests, pet-related vendors, food trucks, live music and more. Microchipping will be available for $20 and ID tags for $5 from OAA.

Woofstock 2019 is sponsored by Animal Emergency Center, Angelâ€™s Pet Funeral Home & Crematory, Southern Agriculture and Route 66 Nissan. The event is hosted by Oklahoma Alliance for Animals, KOTV Channel 6, The Drive 92.9, KVOO 98.5, Big Country 99.5, K-Hits 106.9 and Talk 1170 Radio. FEATURED VIDEO
