

Carson Hamlin of Wagoner is serving as a member of the Connors State College

Rodeo Team in Warner. The CSC freshman competes in team roping and is pursuing an Associate of Science degree in Agriculture. Hamlin and his teammates compete for points at each event. Those with high points qualify to compete at the College National Finals Rodeo in Casper, Wyo. Their competitions will take them throughout Oklahoma and Kansas.

This fall, the team will compete at Cherokee, Oklahoma State University, Pratt Community College and Northwest Oklahoma State University at Alva. They will complete the spring semester contests at Fort Scott, Kan.; Southeast Oklahoma State University, Panhandle State University, Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Garden City, Kan., Colby Community College and Fort Hays State University. Team coaches are

Jake Lawson and Jake Walker. Be the first to know Get local news delivered to your inbox! Sign up! * I understand and agree that registration on or use of this site constitutes agreement to its user agreement and privacy policy.