

How much do you really love your dog? Let us count the ways ...

On second thought, let's number just a few items that uniquely express your devotion to your pet. For starters, you can decorate your Christmas tree with glass ornaments expressing your allegiance to a particular breed. Then there are the ceramic figurines. How about a 2016 calendar or countdown to Christmas wooden frame? But if you really want to unleash your canine competitiveness, opt for a game of Monopoly featuring your dog's breed. Beware, though. You might just end up in the doghouse. WHERE TO FIND: All of the items pictured at right can be found at Southern Agriculture, which has five stores in Tulsa (71st & Sheridan, 32nd & Mingo, 26th & Harvard, 91st & Delaware and in Tulsa Hills, 78th & Highway 75), two stores in Broken Arrow (90th & Elm and 71st & Lynn Lane) and one store in Owasso (92nd Street North and Highway 169). And, yes, they do carry products for cat lovers, too.