

Just a few weeks ago, FOX23 shared the story of a central Oklahoma family that was appalled at how little was on a girl's lunch tray. Now some parents in Green Country say their kids are going hungry. Viewers sent photos of the lunches they said are being served at Haskell High School.