

All Owasso Public Schools locations have announced honorees for the 2017-18 Teacher of the Year awards. These instructors have been recognized for their work at their respective schools and will be considered for the district-wide Teacher of the Year honor, which will be announced at the annual reception March 15.