

Cheyenne Britt is a 2017 graduate of Charles Page High School. Britt is an active member of Aggie Club, President's Leadership Club, and Cowboy Corral. Cheyenne is a sophomore at CSC and pursuing an Associates of Science in Agricultural Education. She will serve the club for the 2017-2018 school year as the Vice President. Other officers this semester include Will Shelby, Madill, OK, President; Shyann McWhirter, Maysville, OK; Tierani Johnson, Land O'Lakes, FL, Treasurer; Alexa Wandrey, Apopka, FL, Reporter; Kortnie Koebel, Wylie, TX, Freshman Student Government Representative; Augustus Warne, Chandler, OK, Sophomore Student Government Representative. The Aggie Club at Connors State College is believed to be the oldest club still active on campus. Earlier versions of this club were known as the Gardening Club, 4-H Club, Farm Club and briefly Collegiate FFA. The group now known as, the Aggie Club has carried that title for over 30 years. The organization is for any student at Connors State College but is based in the Agriculture Division. Club members host activities, competitions and events on campus for members and guests. The club participates in agriculture related events including the Tulsa State Fair, campus Bull sales, tours, recreational and service learning activities. The adviser for the club is Debby Golden.